RESPONSE TO ARGUMENTS

1. The Applicants' arguments, filed on 03/22/2007, with respect to claims 3-14 have been fully considered and are persuasive. The rejections of claims 3-14 have been withdrawn.

EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

2. An Examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to the Applicants, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this Examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Nils E. Pedersen on April 04, 2007.

The application has been amended as follows:

In the claim 12,

Please remove the claim limitation, "first and second bar members arranged on the first and second axes, respectively, and made of an unmagnetized magnetic material; and" disclosed in lines 4 and 5 of the claim.

3. The following is an Examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Kaizaki et al. (JP Pub. 2002-140160) teaches a track ball device comprising a plurality of magnets and a trackball including a plurality of magnetic bars and allowing an operation with minute precision by generating a stable click feeling.

Oishi et al. (JP Pub. 09-282088) teaches an inputting means comprising a trackball having magnetic portions, and a plurality of magnets, wherein the rotation of the trackball is effected by the interaction force between the magnetic portions of the trackball and the plurality of magnets, and thus a click feeling is provided to the user.

None of the prior arts teaches a trackball including a ball portion comprising a plurality of bar members made of unmagnetized magnetic material and a case portion comprising a plurality of fixed magnet portion, wherein the polarity of a first fixed magnet portion of the plurality of fixed magnet portion is opposite to that of a second fixed magnet portion of the plurality of fixed magnet portion.

Any comments considered necessary by the Applicants must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
